

Become A Reviewer

If you would like to submit an article to GigReviewe.com then we would love to hear from you!&nbsp; All we need you to do is to sign up for a free membership and write your first article to submit for a review by one of our team. Upon this review, we will publish your article (and checked spelling for you) and then all can see it! We need reviewers of all talents, even if this your own band and you want to shamelessly self-promote!&nbsp; We look for articles of any&nbsp;size&nbsp;and grammar - as long as it is about music, we don't mind!&nbsp; If GigReviewer.com does not have any articles on the music you listen to, then please be the first to change that! We want your articles on:&nbsp;

Bands

Music Training

Free Downloads (for artists)

Gig Reviews

CD Reviews

Session Musicians

Photos

Gig Announcements (for your next big gig!) You can publish any article direct to your Facebook or Myspace (etc) homepage via our "Share Links" at the top of every page. Site Limitations There are not many of these, but as&nbsp;a Guest you can freely browse all aspects of the site, and you can post any comments which will have to be approved before publishing due to some spammers that we are getting on the site! As an Author you can write articles for approval before publishing, and start posting any comments without prior approval.&nbsp; Spammers will be banned if this priveledge is abused. The next step is for you to become a Trusted Author, where you get all the rights to publish articles and comments without any prior approval.&nbsp; Again, spammers will be banned!&nbsp; Also, as a special extra for Trusted Authors, GigReviewer often receive event invites which we cannot get to, so you would also receive an invitation on the proviso an article is published on the event! If you wish to advertise from a retailing perspective, please contact me with what you have to offer us and we will take this into consideration.&nbsp; GigReviewer.com is here for the individual artists and offer a completely free service to those who put so much hard work into their music and deserve some more recognition for doing so. GigReviewer.com is also building a community where bands and promoters can communicate with eachother and help you on the road to success!
